CARRINGTON PAPERS

On November 15, 1968, Dr. Evelyn M. Carrington sent the Austin-Travis County Collection 29 letters, six certificates, eight clippings, and 17 bulletins and programs.

In November, 1969, a ledger book, Jan. 1856-Jan. 1859, previously cataloged as SB 19 was added to this Archival Paper. It was given by Miss Hettie Hofstetter who thought it to be the account book of a store called Sutor and Hirshfield. The following facts were found in the Texas State Gazette for that period: No store called Sutor and Hirshfield advertised during that period, although there is an item in the ledger for payment of an advertisement in the Texas State Gazette. A store called L. D. Carrington and Co. was located at Congress Avenue and Bois D'Arc in the Lamar Moore Building from Nov. 29, 1853-Feb. 6, 1858. After that time the building was occupied by a store called Phelps and Johnston. One of the final entries in the ledger book is a payment to L. D. Carrington for his services as managing partner from Sept. 25, 1853 to Jan. 1, 1859. Therefore it was assumed that the store operated under the above name with Sutor as a possible silent partner.

In August, 1973, Dr. Carrington gave the A-TCC 9 books, five bound volumes of letters, three bound journals, and some genealogical material. The books included an atlas, two membership rosters of psychological associations, two volumes on conferences on aging, Dr. Carrington's doctoral dissertation, one book on the E. D. Farmer Foundation written by Dr. Carrington, and three Daughters of the Republic of Texas convention proceedings. Also given were two volumes of The Re-Cap and Gown, 1919-1969 and 1920-1970, which have been cataloged as SB 71, v.1,2. cataloged 1985 in General Collection as A 578.76431
